III BUSINESS

1. Council Training Session

The CAO introduced Fred Dean, Municipal Solicitor to members of Council. A brief introduction of Mr. Dean, along with his qualifications, was given, then the meeting was turned over to Mr. Dean to provide some orientation training to members.

Mr. Dean talked on various subjects of interest to new and returning members of Council including such topics as Municipal Conflict of Interest and Councillors responsibilities under that legislation, the role of Council Members and staff, Council Procedural By-Laws, etc.

Members of Council engaged in lively discussion and debate as Mr. Dean lead them through the training agenda for the evening.

The evening concluded with a presentation regarding subdivision developments and whether the municipality should establish a policy regarding requiring 5% land instead of 5% cash-in-lieu.

Members of Council thanked Mr. Dean for the excellent training he provided.
